CNDP organizes a territorial personal data protection and privacy week.

Rabat, January 8, 2025

Every year on January 28th, the DP DAY (Data Privacy Day) is commemorated worldwide by data protection authorities.

This day aims to promote the protection of privacy and personal data.

To mark the 15th anniversary of the implementation of Law 09-08, the CNDP (National Commission for the Control of Personal Data Protection) is organizing, at the territorial level, from January 27 to 31, 2025, a week dedicated to the protection of personal data and respect for privacy.

Several activities and conferences are planned throughout the country to highlight PDP (Personal Data Protection) and explain its importance for citizens, their daily lives, and the economy:

- With Constitutional Institutions: PDP at the service of constitutional values.
- With lawyers nationwide: PDP at the service of investment.
- With the CNSS: PDP at the service of health insurance.
- With doctors: The main principles of PDP in the health sector.

Conferences will be organized across several regions of the kingdom:

- With civil society associations: PDP, Rights and Obligations.
- Presentation of the Koun3alabal digital platform for the protection of the digital privacy of children and adolescents.
- With lawyers: PDP at the service of citizens.
- With the OMALCED association: PDP against defamation and the violation of privacy in the media.
- With doctors, pharmacists, and other health actors.

This week will also be characterized by interventions on the protection of digital identity, genomic information, neurological data, the Internet of Things (IoT), and against deepfakes.

About the CNDP

*The protection of privacy in Morocco is enshrined in Article 24 of the Kingdom's Constitution:
"Everyone has the right to the protection of their private life..."*

The CNDP (National Commission for the Control of Personal Data Protection) was created by Dahir No. 1-09-15 of 22 Safar 1430 (February 18, 2009) promulgating Law No. 09-08 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data (BO No. 5714 of 05/03/2009).
